as emanating from BlenderBottle®, (b) the public recognizes that shakers and agitators bearing the Bottle Trade Dress, Agitator Trade Dress, and Label Trade Dress constitute high quality products that conform to the specifications created by BlenderBottle®, and (c) the Bottle Trade Dress, Agitator Trade Dress, and Label Trade Dress have established strong secondary meaning and extensive goodwill.

32. The Bottle Trade Dress is not functional. The design features embodied by the Bottle Trade Dress are not essential to the function of the product. A container that allows one to combine powders and liquids and that also serves as a drink dispenser can have many different forms and shapes. There are numerous alternative shapes and structures that allow a consumer to combine powders and liquids and use them as a drink dispenser. Examples of commercially available alternatives are depicted in the table below:

- 33. These third-party products show that there are many different design decisions that go into creating a bottle and that the Bottle Trade Dress is the result of decisions regarding ornamentation. Further, BlenderBottle®'s exclusive right to use the Bottle Trade Dress does not put competitors at a significant non-reputation related disadvantage because there are numerous alternative designs.
- 34. Further, the design features of the Bottle Trade Dress are not comparatively simple or inexpensive to manufacture because the elements are complex. For example, the lid shown in the Bottle Trade Dress is more expensive to manufacture than other lids. The design features of the Bottle Trade Dress do not affect the quality of the product. The design of the Bottle Trade Dress is not a competitive necessity.

35. The Agitator Trade Dress is not functional. The design features embodied by the Agitator Trade Dress are not essential to the function of the product. The Agitator Trade Dress is not in its particular shape because it works better in that shape. There are alternative shapes and structures that perform as well as the Agitator Trade Dress. Alternatives to the Agitator Trade Dress can be found in numerous commercially available products. Several examples of commercially available alternatives are depicted in the table below:

- 36. The elements of the Agitator Trade Dress do not make the product cheaper or easier to manufacture, and do not affect the quality of the product. The design of the Agitator Trade Dress is not a competitive necessity.
- 37. The Label Trade Dress is not functional. The design features embodied by the Label Trade Dress are not essential to the function of the packaging, do not make the packaging cheaper or easier to manufacture, do not affect the quality of the packaging, and do not provide a utilitarian advantage to the consumer or affect the actual product that consumers seek to purchase. The Label Trade Dress is not designed in its particular form because it displays the product better in that form. There are alternative label and packaging designs that perform as well as the Label Trade Dress. Alternatives to the Label Trade Dress can be found in numerous commercially available products. The design of the Label Trade Dress is not a competitive necessity.
- 38. The Bottle Trade Dress, Agitator Trade Dress, and Label Trade Dress are invaluable assets essential to BlenderBottle®'s success and represent the designs of its signature products. The shape of the Agitator Trade Dress symbolizes the company itself and is part of a registered trademark used by BlenderBottle® as its corporate logo.

- 39. This logo is prominently displayed on BlenderBottle®'s website, its marketing materials, and stamped on its products.
- 40. Subsequent to BlenderBottle®'s use and adoption of the Bottle Trade Dress, Agitator Trade Dress, and Label Trade Dress, Defendant has developed, manufactured, imported, advertised, and/or sold shaker bottles and agitators that use trade dress that is confusingly similar to the Bottle Trade Dress, Agitator Trade Dress, and Label Trade Dress.
- 41. Defendant manufactures, uses, sells, offers for sale, promotes, advertises, and/or imports into the United States the following shaker bottles, including some in various sizes and colors, which infringe BlenderBottle®'s intellectual property rights (collectively together, the "Hydra Cup Shaker Bottles"):

42. Defendant further manufactures, uses, sells, offers for sale, promotes, advertises and/or imports into the United States shaker bottle lids that infringe BlenderBottle®'s intellectual property rights. A representative infringing Hydra Cup shaker bottle lid is shown below (the "Hydra Cup Shaker Bottle Lid"):

43. On January 21, 2021, BlenderBottle® sent Defendant a cease-and-desist letter demanding that Defendant cease selling shaker bottles and agitators that infringe the D235 Patent, D798 Patent, '877 Patent, Bottle Trade Dress, and Agitator Trade Dress. A true and correct copy of this letter is attached as Exhibit 5.

44. Defendant also began selling shaker bottles with labels that infringe the Label Trade Dress. Images of Defendant's infringing labels are shown below:

Infringing Labels

- 45. BlenderBottle® sent a follow-up letter on March 21, 2022, reiterating BlenderBottle®'s demands from its January 21, 2021, letter, and demanding that Defendant cease selling shakers with labels that infringe the Label Trade Dress. A true and correct copy of this letter is attached as Exhibit 6.
- 46. BlenderBottle® sent another follow-up letter on August 17, 2022, attaching a draft of this Complaint, reiterating BlenderBottle®'s demands from its previous two letters, and demanding that Defendant cease selling shakers with lids that infringe the D551 Patent. A true and correct copy of this letter is attached as Exhibit 7.
- 47. Despite BlenderBottle®'s letters, Defendant has continued to sell the Hydra Cup Shaker Bottles and Hydra Cup Shaker Bottle Lid.
- 48. As shown below, Defendant displays its non-spherical agitators in a misleading manner to make its agitators more closely resemble the Agitator Trade Dress. BlenderBottle® is informed and believes that Defendant advertises and promotes its non-spherical agitators in this manner to mislead consumers into believing that its products are sponsored by, approved by, or originate from BlenderBottle®, when they do not.

- 49. BlenderBottle® is informed and believes and, based thereon, alleges that Defendant has intended to blatantly copy BlenderBottle®'s proprietary designs, and pass off its goods as BlenderBottle®'s high quality products to misappropriate the immense goodwill that BlenderBottle® has spent enormous time, effort, and expense to cultivate in the marketplace.
- 50. Defendant uses the Bottle Trade Dress, Agitator Trade Dress, and Label Trade Dress in connection with identical shaker bottle products sold to identical customers and through overlapping channels of trade and marketing channels. Defendant's use of the Bottle Trade Dress, Agitator Trade Dress, and Label Trade Dress in commerce is likely to cause confusion, cause mistake, and to deceive as to an affiliation, connection, or association of Defendant and/or its products with BlenderBottle®, when there is none.
- 51. Defendant's acts complained of herein have caused BlenderBottle® to suffer irreparable injury to its business. BlenderBottle® will continue to suffer substantial loss and irreparable injury unless and until Defendant is enjoined from its wrongful actions complained of herein.
- 52. BlenderBottle® is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that Defendant's acts complained of herein are willful and deliberate.

V. FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

PATENT INFRINGEMENT (35 U.S.C. § 271)

- 53. BlenderBottle® repeats and re-alleges the allegations of paragraphs 1-52 of this Complaint as if set forth fully herein.
  - 54. This is a claim for patent infringement under 35 U.S.C. § 271.
- 55. Defendant, through its agents, employees and/or servants has knowingly, intentionally, and willfully infringed the D235 Patent by making, using, selling, offering for sale, and/or importing products, including the Hydra Cup Shaker Bottles, that have designs that infringe the D235 Patent. For example, the side-by-side visual comparison of BlenderBottle®'s patented design and Defendant's Hydra Cup Shaker Bottles shown below establishes that in the eye of the ordinary observer, giving such attention as a purchaser usually gives, the design of Defendant's Hydra Cup Shaker Bottles are substantially the same as the claimed design of the D235 Patent, because the resemblance is such as to deceive such an observer inducing him to purchase one supposing it to the be the other. As a result, Defendant infringed the D235 Patent.

U.S. Design Patent No. D510,235

Infringing Hydra Cup Shaker Bottles

56. Defendant, through its agents, employees and/or servants has knowingly, intentionally, and willfully infringed, and continues to infringe, the D551 Patent by making, using, selling, offering for sale, and/or importing products, including the Hydra Cup Shaker Bottles, that have designs that infringe the D551 Patent. For example, the side-by-side visual comparisons of BlenderBottle®'s patented design and Defendant's Hydra Cup Shaker Bottle Lid shown below establishes that in the eye of the ordinary observer, giving such attention as a purchaser usually gives, the design of Defendant's Hydra Cup Shaker Bottle Lid is substantially the same as the claimed design of the D551 Patent, because the resemblance is such as to deceive such an observer inducing him to purchase one supposing it to the be the other. As a result, Defendant infringes the D551 Patent.

57. Defendant, through its agents, employees and/or servants has knowingly, intentionally, and willfully infringed the D798 Patent by making, using, selling, offering for sale, and/or importing products, including the Hydra Cup Shaker Bottles, that have designs that infringe the D798 Patent. For example, the side-by-side visual comparisons of BlenderBottle®'s patented design and Defendant's Hydra Cup Shaker Bottle shown below establishes that in the eye of the ordinary observer, giving such attention as a purchaser usually gives, the design of Defendant's Hydra Cup Shaker Bottle is substantially the same as the claimed design of the D798 Patent, because the resemblance is such as to deceive such an observer inducing him to purchase one supposing it to the be the other. As a result, Defendant infringes the D798 Patent.

U.S. Patent No. D697,798

Infringing Hydra Cup Shaker Bottles

- 58. The Federal Circuit has held that a design patent is infringed if the accused product looks substantially similar, in light of the existing prior art, to the patented design in the eyes of an ordinary observer. Egyptian Goddess, Inc. v. Swisa, Inc., 543 F.3d 665, 682-83 (Fed. Cir. 2008). As can be seen in the side-by-side comparisons of representative figures from the D235 Patent and D798 with the Hydra Cup Shaker Bottles and the D551 Patent with the Hydra Cup Shaker Bottle Lid, it is evident that the Hydra Cup Shaker Bottles and Hydra Cup Shaker Bottle Lid are "substantially similar" to BlenderBottle®'s patented designs and, thus, infringe.
- 59. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's acts of infringement, Defendant has derived and received gains, profits, and advantages in an amount that is not presently known to BlenderBottle®.
  - 60. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284, BlenderBottle® is entitled to damages for Defendant's infringing acts and treble damages together with interests and costs as fixed by this Court.

- 61. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 285, BlenderBottle® is entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees for the necessity of bringing this claim in this exceptional case.
- 62. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 289, BlenderBottle® is entitled to Defendant's total profits from Defendant's infringement of the D235 Patent, D551, and D798 Patent.

VI. SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

DEFENDANT'S TRADE DRESS INFRINGEMENT (15 U.S.C. §1125(a))

- 63. BlenderBottle® repeats and re-alleges the allegations of paragraphs 1-52 of this Complaint as if set forth fully herein.
- 64. This is a claim for trade dress infringement under 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a). Subsequent to BlenderBottle®'s use and adoption of the Bottle Trade Dress, and the development of secondary meaning in that trade dress, Defendant has developed, manufactured, imported, advertised, and/or sold products that use trade dress that is confusingly similar to the Bottle Trade Dress. An example of Defendant's infringing use of the Bottle Trade Dress is shown below:

Bottle Trade Dress:

65. Subsequent to BlenderBottle®'s use and adoption of the Agitator Trade Dress, and the development of secondary meaning in that trade dress, Defendant has developed, manufactured, imported, advertised, and/or sold products with agitators, including the agitators for the Hydra Cup Shaker Bottles I-IV, which use trade dress that is confusingly similar to the Agitator Trade Dress. An example of Defendant's infringing use of the Agitator Trade Dress is shown below:

Subsequent to BlenderBottle®'s use and adoption of the distinctive Label Trade Dress, and the development of secondary meaning in that trade dress, Defendant has developed, manufactured, imported, advertised, and/or sold products with labels, including the labels for the Hydra Cup OG Shakers shaker bottles, which use a trade dress that is confusingly similar to the Label Trade Dress. An example of Defendant's infringing use of the Label Trade Dress is shown below:

Label Trade Dress

Infringing Labels

- 67. Defendant's use of the Bottle Trade Dress, Agitator Trade Dress, and Label Trade Dress in connection with its products is likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive as to the affiliation, connection, or association of Defendant with BlenderBottle®.
- BlenderBottle® is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendant infringed BlenderBottle®'s trade dress rights with the intent to unfairly compete with BlenderBottle®, to trade upon BlenderBottle®'s reputation and goodwill by causing confusion and mistake among customers and the public, and to deceive the public into believing that Defendant's products are associated with, sponsored by, originated from, or are approved by BlenderBottle®, when they are not, resulting in a loss of reputation in, and mischaracterization of, BlenderBottle®'s products and its brand, damaging its marketability and saleability.

- 69. Defendant's activities constitute willful and intentional infringement of BlenderBottle®'s trade dress rights in total disregard of BlenderBottle®'s proprietary rights, and were done despite Defendant's knowledge that use of the Bottle Trade Dress, Agitator Trade Dress, and Label Trade Dress was, and is, in direct contravention of BlenderBottle®'s rights.
- 70. BlenderBottle® is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendant has derived and received, and will continue to derive and receive, gains, profits, and advantages from Defendant's trade dress infringement in an amount that is not presently known to BlenderBottle®. By reason of Defendant's actions, constituting trade dress infringement, BlenderBottle® has been damaged and is entitled to monetary relief in an amount to be determined at trial.
- 71. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117, BlenderBottle® is entitled to recover (1) Defendant's profits, (2) any damages sustained by BlenderBottle®, and (3) the costs of the action. In assessing damages, the Court may enter judgment up to three times actual damages, and in awarding profits, the Court may in its discretion enter judgment for such sum as the court shall find to be just, according to the circumstances of the case. The Court may also award BlenderBottle® its reasonable attorneys' fees for the necessity of bringing this claim in this exceptional case.
- 72. Due to Defendant's actions, constituting trade dress infringement, BlenderBottle® has suffered great and irreparable injury, for which BlenderBottle® has no adequate remedy at law.
- 73. Defendant will continue to infringe BlenderBottle®'s trade dress rights to the great and irreparable injury of BlenderBottle®, unless and until Defendant is enjoined by this Court.

VII. THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

TRADE DRESS INFRINGEMENT (15 U.S.C. §1114)

- 74. BlenderBottle® repeats and re-alleges the allegations of paragraphs 1-52 and 63-73 of this Complaint as if set forth fully herein.
  - 75. This is a claim for trade dress infringement under 15 U.S.C. § 1114.
- 76. BlenderBottle® owns U.S. Trademark Registration No. 6,245,626 for its Agitator Trade Dress.
- 77. Without BlenderBottle®'s permission, Defendant has used in commerce trade dress that is identical to the Agitator Trade Dress. Defendant has infringed BlenderBottle®'s Agitator Trade Dress and created a false designation of origin by using identical trade dress in connection with the manufacturing, distributing, selling, and/or promoting of Defendant's bottle products.
- 78. BlenderBottle® is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that Defendant did so with the intent to unfairly compete with BlenderBottle®, to trade upon BlenderBottle®'s reputation and goodwill by causing confusion and mistake among customers and the public, and to deceive the public into believing that Defendant's products are associated with, sponsored by, originated from, or are approved by BlenderBottle®, when they are not.
